

PRAYER OF THE FAITHFUL

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time

8th July 2018

Priest

Let us pray that power of Christ may be manifest in our weakness.

Reader

That the Church may boldly fulfil the command of Jesus to make disciples of all nations.

Lord, hear us

That those afflicted by war, terrorism, or any form of violence come to know peace and love.

Lord, hear us

That we may be content with weaknesses, insults, hardships, persecutions and agonies for the sake of Christ.

Lord, hear us

That those who suffer the thorn in the flesh of physical or mental illness may know God's caring and healing love and receive the help they need in their daily lives.

Lord, hear us

That the clergy and parishioners of the Weston-super-Mare parishes will have their prayers heard as we join together to pray for them this weekend. We also pray for our partnership of St George's and St Teresa's and for the Christian churches in the Taunton area.

Lord, hear us

That those who have recently been called by the Lord may we pray for, in particular: Dr Michael Barry, Deacon Peter Hinchey; welcome them all into eternity.

Lord hear us.

That Mary, Our Mystical Rose, will give us her protection and guidance, as we say together:

Hail Mary.....

Priest

Almighty Father, we ask you to hear our prayer, and have mercy on us; protect us from the scorn of the rich, the disdain of the proud and the weakness of the flesh, through Christ our Lord. Amen.
